Other News of Society at the Capital

The Minister of Bolivia and Mme. Calderon entertained a dinner last evening when a distinguished company was invited to meet the Secretary of State and Mrs. Lansing.

Owing to a recent indisposition the Secretary was compelled to decline all dinner invitations for the week, but Mrs. Lansing was present at the dinner.

Representative Sloop and Miss Sloop were hosts at dinner last evening at the White House. The guests were Mr. and Mrs. Robert T. Watson, of West Virginia. The other guests were Capt. and Mrs. Richard C. Marshall, Mrs. E. P. Lauson, Miss Flora Doyle, Miss Edith Grade, Representative Stafford, Representative Whaley, Capt. C. C. Calhoun, Mr. Everett Dienen, of Virginia, and Lieut. E. M. Watson.

Announcement was made at the White House yesterday that the invitation list to Mrs. Wilson's garden party today has been closed. Attention is called to the requirement that the cards of admission inclosed with the invitations must be presented at the east entrance of the White House.

Representative and Mrs. James R. Mann were the honor guests at a dinner given last evening by Representative and Mrs. Fred Britten at the Army and Navy Club.

Mrs. T. De Witt Talmage entertained at luncheon yesterday at the White House in honor of Mrs. Robert Lansing and Mrs. T. G. McCutcheon, of Pittsburgh, sister-in-law of Mrs. Talmage. There were eighteen additional guests.

Today And A Generation Hence

The flight of time makes us think of the future. The baby of today reflects what greatness may be acquired when he grows up. And any influence that brings relief to the expectant mother is the first and greatest of obligations. There is a remedy known as "Mother's Friend" that has been safeguarded, a helpful daily influence, to a host of women. Applied externally to the muscles they stretch without undue pain, there is an absence of distress, the nerves are soothed by taking away the burden of leaving all to just natural conditions.

We do not know to what extent the comfort and ease of the expectant mother influence the mental development of the child. Its physical nature, however, must be greatly aided. And it may easily be understood why with a restful nervous system, a calm anticipation and a joyous expectancy, there can be none of those harassing disturbances to provoke nervous conditions.

There is in "Mother's Friend" the direct and immediate help that all expectant mothers require. Used by their own hand, guided by their own minds, they learn at once the blessed relief from morning sickness resulting from undue stretching. They experience daily calm and nightly rest. It is "Mother's Friend." Get a bottle today of any drugstore. Then write Bradford's Regulator Co., 115 Lamar Bldg., Atlanta, Ga., for one of the most interesting and valuable little books ever presented. It is worth writing for.

SILVER GRAY FAILLE COAT AND SKIRT.

Faille is becoming more of a favorite every day for the dressy tailor and the chic afternoon frock and one of the modish tints in which it shows to special advantage is silver gray—the shade chosen for this charming costume. The plaited peplum to the coat and the deep turned-back cuffs are details that call for special attention. The belt is of old blue supple kid, the ribbon that outlines the neck of the cream lace vestee being in the same soft, harmonizing color.

Madeline Beaulac, Miss Serena Pugh, Miss Elsie Grumbrecht, Miss Gene Lester, Miss Florence Barbee, and Mrs. Samuel Staples, Dr. Stanton, Mr. Charles Olney, Mr. Ricardo Zappone, Mr. Raymond Roache, Mr. Ray Simco, Mr. Lawrence Mark, Mr. Pearson Meeka, Mr. Samuel Donaldson, Mr. Will Targert, Mr. Damer, Mr. A. Anderson, Mr. Birch, Mr. Edward Keyes, and Mr. Louis Klopfer.

Mrs. Margaretta Campbell and Miss Campbell, widow and daughter of the late Tim Campbell, of New York City, have been spending the spring season in Washington. Miss Campbell, who has a beautiful soprano voice, has been heard in concerts during her visit to this city.

The board of lady managers of St. Joseph's Orphan Boys' Asylum gave the 100 boys an outing at the Zoo with games and refreshments yesterday afternoon.

Senator and Mrs. Key Pittman entertained at a large dinner last evening in the presidential suite at the Willard in honor of the former United States Ambassador to Russia and Mrs. Marya.

The president of the University of California and Mrs. Benjamin Ide Wheeler arrived at Washington yesterday and are stopping at the Willard for several days.

Mrs. George C. Holt, of New York, accompanied by her daughter, Miss Constance Holt, is staying at the Willard for a few days.

HOROSCOPE.

Friday, May 26, 1916.

"The stars incline, but do not compel."

This is rather a fortunate day for Neptune and the Sun are in benefic aspect. Uranus is slightly adverse.

The signs are read as presaging the exercise of influence by persons in power, whether it be political, commercial or social. Circumstances will exact the use of personal pressure in many fields of human activity.

The way is a lucky one for persons in government office, whether in high or humble place.

Gain through initiative and enterprise is believed to be aided by the planetary sway under this configuration.

Those who seek employment or position should make the most of the hours after noon.

Public announcements or advertisement of any sort relating to men or women in professional or artistic callings have a happy augury.

According to ancient lore the giving of presents was supposed to be particularly fortunate when the Sun bestowed benefits as it does today.

Changes in manners and morals are prognosticated. Standards will be raised and old formalities will be restored.

Neptune again gives promise of great profit through the handling of food-stuffs. Farmers and merchants have a forecast of unusual prosperity.

Again it is predicted that July may be a serious time for Norway.

The conjunction of Mars and Saturn close to the radical Sun in the horoscope of President Wilson is read as indicating more problems in statecraft as well as personal anxieties.

The end of this month and all of June are exceedingly threatening to the King of Norway.

Persons whose birthdates it is have a good augury for the year. Those who are employed should benefit greatly.

Children born on this day should be unusually fortunate all through life. These subjects of Gemini are generally very lucky.

NEW YORK DAY BY DAY

New York, May 25.—Many things can happen along its route that Broadway and its denizens care but little about.

But it, and its, does care about its tonorial artists and when the news spread that the barbers were going to call a strike the street appeared a bit gloomy.

At present the smoothly shaven face is quite the thing. But, if the barbers strike, whiskers may become popular.
